

Get them vaccinated this year and every year!

Keep our kids healthy and active this winter! Children 6 months and older should be vaccinated every flu season for the best protection against flu. Some children may need 2 doses of flu vaccine.

Ask your health care provider today!